

OUR CONFESSION

Why the 1689 Confession?

The 1689 London Baptist Confession of Faith is more than a historical document. It is a guide for understanding the Bible and living faithfully as followers of Christ, offering clarity about God, salvation and Christian living.

For pastors and church leaders: a framework for shepherding congregations and upholding sound doctrine.

For church members: confidence in God's Word and unity in the faith.

For seekers: a map to understanding the gospel and living out biblical truths.

Confessing the Faith

An annual conference in Chilliwack, BC, on the historical context and theology of the 1689 Confession, for pastors and any Christian who wants to go deeper into Scripture and the Reformed confessions.

ABOUT US

Who we are

The ARBCWC was established in November 2024 to promote unity among Reformed Baptist churches. Guided by the 1689 London Baptist Confession, we support one another in ministry, doctrinal accountability and fellowship.

Founding member churches at the signing of the association agreement, April 2025.

What we do

Supporting church planting

We partner with local congregations to plant new Reformed Baptist churches, with resources and mentorship for their growth.

Training men for ministry

Theological and practical training for pastors, elders and church leaders.

Encouraging mutual support

Fellowship through regular gatherings, conferences and collaboration among member churches.

Doctrinal accountability

Upholding the 1689 Confession and helping churches maintain sound biblical practice.
